The rebels have succeeded in laying under contribution most of the English reviews and magazines. In the September number of Blackwood there is an article evidently written by one from this side of the Atlantic. The title is, "President Jefferson Davis." It gives a sketch of his life, and makes him out a conspicuous figure in the affairs of the nation.

The Federal Government has been constantly encroaching on the rights of the Southern States, and disregarding the Constitution—so says Blackwood now—"and Jeff. Davis had, with marvelous eloquence, protested against these encroachments." It would not do to specify, for details might be embarrassing; but the writer refers to the tariffs of 1828 and 1842. "These," he says, "well nigh excluded foreign manufacturers from the Southern markets, and the transport of Southern products to foreign markets."

How the latter was affected is not made apparent, as there was no duty on imports.

He does not state that both these tariffs were repealed, and that the South voted for the tariff that existed at the time this rebellion broke out; that, in fact, there was not a law on the statute-book that could operate differently upon the North and South than the South had not initiated and sustained; that no President had been elected for a generation that the South had not voted for, until the election of Abraham Lincoln, and then both Houses of Congress were, on all the questions at issue, with the South, if indeed, there was any point of difference left. Indeed, it was plain that the overwhelming vote of Congress must hereafter come from the planting and agricultural regions, and, consequently, no unnecessary restrictions on trade could be made.

Blackwood must tell the British people that the Federal Government had oppressed the South, and that it was done through the tariff.

It wouldn't do to tell the world what the whole pretext on this side of the Atlantic was. Nobody South pretended to be oppressed by the tariff; for the South had made the tariff; Jeff. Davis being one of her representatives in the matter. The tariff of 1857 was made by him and his friends.

This tariff pretense is, therefore, a mere lie, told away in Edinburgh, to be read by the people of Europe. Here both North and South will treat it with derision, and they see it.

We learn that the Circuit Courts in the Third Judicial District are suspended and all causes are continued.

A Salt Lake letter to the St. Louis Republican says that Brigham Young is building a theater at his own expense, which, in size and commodiousness, will compare favorably with any theater in the West. It is one hundred and forty-four feet by eighty; the stage is sixty-four feet deep, the height from the floor to the temporary ceiling is forty feet, and to the top of the dome, which is not to be finished off this year, sixty-five feet. It has three tiers of galleries, and the usual inside arrangements. The edifice is built of stone cut from the mountains. It is being finished off mostly with white pine, though some red pine, balsam and cotton wood are used. From forty to fifty workmen are employed, and it is expected that the building will be completed by November.

Not much regard is had to the beauty of its architecture, but it has an appearance of durability and solidity like the mountains which surround it. In the meantime the actors and actresses who are to play before the king are on the spot and studying for their winter's performance. Brigham believes in cultivating the home talent, nor does he need to send abroad for stars, for the dramatic talent in the city is wonderful, when we consider how far removed it is from the bounds of civilization, yet not so wonderful when we remember that these people have gathered together from all quarters of the globe, bringing with them the tastes, characteristics, and talents of their varied nationalities.

RATHER DOUBTFUL.—The Spirit of the Times has a story that we are scarcely willing to credit:

"A farmer out West was greatly annoyed by the scratching of his chickens in his garden, and concluded to experiment with them a little. He procured the services of a Shanghai rooster, and the result of the cross was a brood of chickens, all having one long leg and one short leg. When they sponged on the long leg and undertook to scratch with the other they couldn't touch the bottom; on reversing the order of things, one supported the body, the first stroke would result in a grand series of somersaults. The consequence was that the hen soon became 'awary' of that fun, and left the garden, and the farmer's good wife rejoiced greatly the next."

MANUFACTURING FRESH WATER AT PULASKI.—All the water used by the Union regiment at Fort Pulaski, Georgia, is collected from a spring generated from salt water by Frob. Gilmore, from Paterson, New Jersey. When the need of water was felt, Gilmore constructed a condenser inside the fort, the condensing machine manufacturing four thousand five hundred gallons a day more than is consumed by the troops. This makes good drinking water, and is used for all ordinary purposes. Before the erection of these works, all the water had to be brought down in vessels from Beaufort and Bay Point. Mr. Gilmore is now chief superintendent of the entire concern.

General Tilghman, recently released from imprisonment at Fort Warren by exchange, is now at Jackson, Mississippi. He was too brief for him to learn fully the error of battling against his country; yet with the clear vision he now has, he sees how dark are the paths through which he must have trod before he could know all, and, in the sunlight of a brighter day, beholds the glorious cause against which he honestly but erroneously struggled.

Mr. Perman, an excellent citizen and loyal, a tavern keeper at Big Springs, was killed by the rebels on Monday last. He was at the time, unarmed, and fleeing, and after his death he was robbed of the money on his person.

The interpretation of the proclamation given by the radical organ is well surmised to be a political dodge. Radicals are alarmed in New York State, and tremble at the result of the elections this fall. The palpable failure of all their projects and suggestions has disgusted thousands, and the union of the opposition, which seems to be made in good faith, bodes disaster at the polls. They would fain appear to oust all now part of a demonstration of generosity. They propose to treat the States as if they had never been in rebellion.

The fraud in the transaction is, that this proposition cannot be made in the Southern papers. The army stands between them and any proposition of settlement. This army and the whole political organization in the Southern States are in the hands of Jeff. Davis & Co. Their credit, fame and power they will not give up no matter what may be the consideration. The people can make no manifestation of loyalty for they cannot be protected by the Government at Washington.

Then the alternative is the radical programme of conducting the war. They make a proposition that can only succeed upon the prompt success of our armies, and their complete success; and the alternative is the destructive policy of the Abolitionists. For the sake of political success, they can afford to offer what cannot be accepted, and get their radical policy in the end. Craft, but shallow.

The rebels left Shelbyville night before last in haste. They got word that our forces were coming, and skedaddled. They commenced at eight o'clock next morning, and were all off at four o'clock next morning. They drove off some cattle, and took away about one hundred and fifty horses, leaving broken-down ones in their place. They have left about $12,000 in Confederate scrip, which they compelled the people to take in payment for what they wanted. Nixon promised to start a paper in Shelbyville, but he has not kept his word. There were just 4,200 rebels in the rebel camp at Shelbyville.

Mr. N. Vineyard writes from Vicksburg. Ind., that the rebels have robbed his boat of all the goods, seven or eight thousand dollars' worth, and burned the boat. The citizens remonstrated, but of no avail. This was done, we presume, at Carrollton, Ky. The rebels made several visits, taking a part of the goods each time.

The loyal citizens of Meade county complain of the ravages of desperadoes who act under the color of the rebel authority. If they cannot be relieved or assisted they expect to at least make the rebel agents pay dearly for all their outrages.

Police PROCEEDINGS—Thursday, Oct. 2.

Henry Fitch, charged with stealing a horse from James Moore, in Bullitt county; the testimony was heard and the prisoner sent to Bullitt county in charge of Mr. Ryan.

Com'd by C. H. Rice vs Elias Levi; dismissed at plaintiff's cost.

Com'd by Pat McCue vs Michael Wells; bail in $100 to answer to the charge of an assault.

Pat Ryan and Daniel O'Haram, charged with assaulting James H. Lewis, f. m. c. Pat Ryan was held over in $100 to answer an assault, and Daniel O'Haram was held to bail in $200 to keep the peace for six months.

Com'd by Bryan Noon vs John Dirkon; dismissed at plaintiff's cost.

Susan and Christopher Cruse, charged with stealing a silk dress, one pair of shoes, a bonnet, and some black veils; continued.

Com'd by Mr. and Mrs. Kernes vs Mr. and Mrs. Reinhard; bail in $100.

FROM THE SHELDYVILLE ROAD.—We learn that our advance is up the Sheldyvillepike to the first fort and beyond—some sixteen miles from the city. The rebels were reported in the thicket just beyond the fourth fort. The Federals shelled the woods, and gave a volley of musketry, when all who were there skedaddled. The rebels are getting out of the way along the road to Sheldyville.

A gentleman who has just reached the city, says they are getting out on foot, on horseback, muleback, or any other expedition within their means.

THEATER—BENEFIT OF MISS MARY PROVOST.—This evening is the last but one of Miss Mary Provost's long and wonderfully successful engagement. On this occasion she will take a complimentary and final benefit, when, as a matter of course, the house will be crowded to its fullest capacity. This evening she will produce, for the first time in this country, a drama entitled the Countess and Grisette, translated and adapted by her from a large selection of the best Parisian dramas. She will also appear as Julian in Tobin's beautiful comedy of the Honey Moon. Secure your seats early this morning.

We have recently read a small pamphlet giving a brief biography of Champ Ferguson, the notorious guerrilla chief, thief and robber. He is a fair type of the leaders in the rebellion—bankrupt in fame and fortune, an outlaw and outcast of society. Let our Union men procure a copy of this publication and read it—see the material out of which secessionists are made. Orders left at this office will be forwarded to the publisher.

FROM LAGRANGE.—Gentlemen arrived in the city last night, who left Lagrange yesterday forenoon. They went by wagon to Old-hamburg, and thence by the river road to town. They report that there are no rebels nor guerrillas in that vicinity, nor nearer than Henry county, and represent all quiet in the vicinity of Lagrange.

A GOOD CHANCE.—Recruits are still wanted for the Thirty-sixth Kentucky Mounted Infantry. Those desiring to serve their country in this important crisis by raising companies or parts of companies, will please call at A. J. Alexander's recruiting office, on Main street, south side, near First.

In our notice of "sword presentation," by the Provest Guards, we omitted saying that the presentation would take place at four o'clock, on Friday afternoon. The printer made us say the presentation would be made by Lieut. Lyndell, instead of Tindell.

A soldier lost his pocket-book containing forty-five dollars—all the money he had—on Market between First and Second streets. The finder will confer a favor and will receive five dollars reward by leaving it at this office.

General Hallock has requested that no more presents be sent to soldiers. They accumulate in Washington, are destroyed, benefit nobody, but trouble a great many in care and transportation.

Yesterday's News.

As usual, the day was full of rumors yesterday and last night, of fighting thirteen miles out, and at various other points; but so far as we can learn, there was no fighting nearer the city than Mt. Washington, in the edge of Bullitt county, about twenty miles from the city. It was reported that a sharp little fight took place at Mt. Washington yesterday morning, but with what result we could not learn. The report in the Evening Bulletin, of a fight at Hornsby's, five miles out from the city, on the Bardstown road, in which twenty-five Federal soldiers were killed and wounded, was all a hoax.

McCook's corps d'armes arrived at Sheldyville yesterday afternoon, without having met any rebels, making the distance of 31 miles in a little over one day. This we call rapid marching.

Gilbert's corps has gone in a direction that will ere long bring about for the rebels unexpected developments, and confine them pretty much to one line of retreat.

The last report from the direction of Bardstown are, that the rebels are massing their forces at that point or near it, with the intention of marching through Springfield and Danville, to camp Dick Robinson, where they propose to fortify. It was reported that a person had arrived in the city who came through our lines. He testifies that the main body of the rebel army has retreated four miles from Bardstown.

A lady from Paris reports that the rebels forces which left there some days ago for the purpose of trying to intercept Gen. Geo. W. Morgan, in his movement towards the Ohio river, had returned, and left again in the direction of Lexington.

Affairs at Brandenburg, Kentucky.

Skirmishing occurred at Brandenburg, Kentucky, on Saturday, between eight or ten Union men against twenty-five guerrillas. The Union men were armed with Henry's rifles, and drove the rebels away.

They took three guns, and found some rebels, through which there were bullet holes; they also caught several of their horses.

Again, on Tuesday, some of the rebels made their appearance under the lead of Ephraim Wimp, a notorious Secessionist, in their camp, between First and Brook.

A Union scout went in pursuit, and a sharp fire occurred between the parties. The said Ephraim was killed. He had a load of sin on his soul and has gone headlong to his final account.

On Saturday, a gang of thieves, under the lead of Ephraim Wimp, went over to Big Spring postoffice, and took Ransom Peerman, the postmaster, from his house, and killed him. His wife was sick in bed, and for remonstrating with Wimp, had her out of bed and abused her. They then robbed the postoffice and the house, and put off with their booty.

This scoundrel, Wimp, who murdered Peerman, on Saturday, was killed near Brandenburg on Tuesday, as above reported.

GENERAL GEORGE W. MORGAN.—We copy elsewhere a statement from the Cincinnati Commercial, that General Morgan had reached West Liberty. We do not think the statement probable, because it would take him off his direct course, and lead him up into the mountains of Carter and Greenup counties. A report was current in the city, last night, that he had reached the Ohio river at or near Portsmouth. This we do not consider probable, because his shrewdest and most direct route from Manchester would lead him through Flemingsburg to Maysville. We have no doubt, however, that he is safe from an attack by a heavy force of the rebels, and ready to look after the matter into their hands, and put an effectual stopper on such outrageous proceedings.

The Richmond Dispatch, of September 27th, says that, about two weeks ago, five men were arrested from a boat in Mobile Bay, on suspicion that they were making an attempt to escape to New Orleans. They were subsequently sent to prison in Mobile, and upon searching them were found upon them charts and plans of the defenses of Mobile. One of them, Doctor Marius Louis Rossvelly, of New Orleans, where he had a wife and children, has been hanged, but whether by military or civil authority is not ascertained.

FROM THE SHELDYVILLE ROAD.—We learn that our advance is up the Sheldyvillepike to the first fort and beyond—some sixteen miles from the city. The rebels were reported in the thicket just beyond the fourth fort. The Federals shelled the woods, and gave a volley of musketry, when all who were there skedaddled. The rebels are getting out of the way along the road to Sheldyville.

A gentleman who has just reached the city, says they are getting out on foot, on horseback, muleback, or any other expedition within their means.

THEATER—BENEFIT OF MISS MARY PROVOST.—This evening is the last but one of

Miss Mary Provost's long and wonderfully successful engagement. On this occasion she will take a complimentary and final benefit, when, as a matter of course, the house will be crowded to its fullest capacity. This evening she will produce, for the first time in this country, a drama entitled the Countess and Grisette, translated and adapted by her from a large selection of the best Parisian dramas. She will also appear as Julian in Tobin's beautiful comedy of the Honey Moon. Secure your seats early this morning.

We have recently read a small pamphlet giving a brief biography of Champ Ferguson, the notorious guerrilla chief, thief and robber. He is a fair type of the leaders in the rebellion—bankrupt in fame and fortune, an outlaw and outcast of society. Let our Union men procure a copy of this publication and read it—see the material out of which secessionists are made. Orders left at this office will be forwarded to the publisher.

GOOD APPOINTMENT.—Captain Walworth Jenkins has, we learn, been appointed Chief Quartermaster of this Department, and was installed yesterday. Capt. Jenkins is admirably qualified for the office, and will bring to the discharge of its duties, a business tact, an energy of character and a care over the interests of the Government, that will speedily tell. We congratulate the Captain on his appointment, and the whole country for two hundred miles.

A good money.—We are informed by the New Albany Ledger that the Fourth Michigan cavalry, encamped between city and Jeffersonville, are passing large quantities of money of the old broken Michigan banks; among others the Erie and Kalamazoo Bank, Bank of Tecumseh, and Bank of River Raisin. One person had twenty-two dollars of this bogus stuff passed upon him. The Ledger says the officers of the regiment were made aware of this fact, but done nothing to remedy the evil.

For the whole bodies contract in ours."

DR. ROBACK'S
BLOOD PURIFIER

and

BLOOD PILLS

have been introduced to the public for more than six years, and have acquired an Immense Popularity, far exceeding any Family Medicines of a similar nature in the market.

An appreciating public was not long in discovering they possessed remarkable

Curative Properties, and hence their

Rapid Sale
and consequent profit to the Proprietor
thus enabling him to expend

Many Thousands of dollars each year in advertising their merits, and publishing the Numerous Certificates which have been showered upon him from

All parts of the Country.

The peculiarity of Blood Purifier and Pills
is that they strike at the root of Disease, by eradicating every particle of impurity

In the Blood,
for the life and health of the body depends upon the purity of the blood.

If the blood is poisoned, the body drags out a miserable existence. These medicines are unequalled

for curing Liver Complaint,
Skin Diseases, Female Complaints,
Salt Rashes,
Rheumatism,
Dyspepsia,
Old Sores,
Leucorrhoea,
Erysipelas,
Tumors,
Fits, Sorfoulous Consumption, etc.

ONE person writes, her daughter was cured of fits of nine years' standing, and St. Vitus' dance of two years.

ANOTHER writes, his son was cured of his fits had almost wasted away.

The doctors pronounced the case incurable.

ANOTHER was cured of Fever and Ague after trying every medicine in his reach.

ANOTHER was cured of Fever Sore which had existed fourteen years.

ANOTHER of Rheumatism of eight years.

Cases innumerable of Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint could be mentioned in which the Purifier and Pills are the most active and thorough pills that have ever been introduced.

They act directly upon the Liver, exciting the blood, and to an extent as the system does not relax into its former condition, which is too apt to be the case with a purgative pill.

They are really a

Blood and Liver Pill, which, in conjunction with the

Blood Purifier,

will cure all the aforementioned diseases,
and, of themselves, will relieve and cure

Headache, Costiveness,

Colic Pains, Cholera Morbus,

Indigestion, Pain in the Bowels,

Dizziness, etc.

Try these medicines, and you will never regret it.

Ask your neighbors, who have used them, and they will say they are

Good Medicines,

and you should try them before going for a physician.

Get a Pamphlet or Almanac of my local agent, and read the certificates, and if you have ever doubted you will Doubt no more.

As a proof that the Blood Purifier and Pills are perfectly safe, I will give the certificates of those most eminent Physicians of New York, and Locks of Cincinnati.

Read Dr. Roback's Special Notice of Certificates, and you will be satisfied of the value of this medicine.

Garibaldi's Own Account of His Capture.

The Paris correspondent of the Morning Herald forwards a remarkable document, which purports to be an account of the battle of Aspromonte, written by Garibaldi himself, on the 1st of September, from on board the Duke de Genova, Sept. 1.

"On Board the DUKE DE GENOVA, Sept. 1.

"They thirsted for blood, and I wished to spare it. Not the poor soldier who obeyed, but the man of the people, who cannot pardon a revolution for saving a nation, (a thing which disturbs the conservative digestion), and for having contributed to reconstruct our Italian family. Yes, they thirsted for blood. I perceived this with pain, and I applied myself in consequence to prevent their being shed. I went along the front of our lines, crying out not to fire, and from the center to the left, when my voice and that of my aide-de-camp could be heard, not a shot was fired. It was not the lowest man in the ranks who fired, but the general and superintendents.
